Qatar Airways Expands Global Network with New Destinations in South America: Bogotá and Caracas

The World's Best Airline welcomes Bogotá and Caracas as its 15th and 16th destinations in the Americas, launching its second longest flight to the Americas

DOHA, Qatar — Qatar Airways proudly announces its latest expansion into the Americas with the launch of two new weekly flights on Wednesdays and Sundays, starting early summer 2025. These flights will connect Hamad International Airport (DOH) in Doha to Bogotá El Dorado International Airport (BOG) in Colombia, and then continue to Caracas Simon Bolivar International Airport (CCS) in Venezuela. The return flight from Caracas will operate non-stop to Doha.

Qatar Airways Returns to Malta with Four Weekly Flights this Summer

Starting 11th Dec 24, Australians can book Virgin Australia's new services to jet directly from Sydney, Brisbane, and Perth to Doha for travel from June 2025, with Melbourne set to join the party later that year. These flights will be operated by Virgin Australia using Qatar Airways' spacious Boeing 777s, equipped with our Qsuite Business Class.
