

→ Update Lap Infant Ticketing for Travel on Alaska Airlines

Please be informed that effective April 22, 2026, Alaska Airlines requires tickets for all lap infants on both domestic and international flights. A ticket must be issued for every infant traveler, regardless of the destination.

Previously, lap infant tickets were only mandatory for international routes. Under the new policy, this requirement has been extended to include all domestic sectors.