

Serving over 160 global destinations this summer

We are expanding in the Americas with new flight operations to Caracas and Bogotá, starting 22 July 2026. This milestone makes the first Gulf carrier to serve Venezuela, and the first airline to operate flights from the Middle East to both cities, strengthening global connectivity across the region.

We are also reinstating services to Kigali, Rwanda; Tokyo Haneda, Japan; Helsinki, Finland; and Nagpur, India, offering greater choice for travellers.

Qatar Airways will operate two weekly flights to Caracas and Bogotá, further enhancing connectivity to, and from, the Americas.

The flight schedule to Caracas and Bogota has been designed to provide smooth onward connections through Hamad International Airport to key markets across Qatar Airways' global network.
