

It's good to connect

Tell me more

7 reasons to fly across the Atlantic via Dublin

Planning a trip to Europe? We're here to tell you why you'll love flying to a wide range of destinations across Ireland, the UK and mainland Europe via our Dub hub. From stress free connections to U.S. preclearance and our warm Irish welcome, here's what you can look forward to.

Tell me more

U.S. Preclearance in Dublin Airport

Ireland's the only country in Europe with U.S. Preclearance, so you can complete immigration and customs checks in Dublin before you board your transatlantic flight.

Tell me more

Fly from your local airport

Fly from your local airport and start your journey with ease, thanks to Aer Lingus' 20+ North American gateways and convenient access close to home.

Tell me more

Iconic cities and hidden gems

Whether you want to see classic landmarks or explore somewhere off-the-beaten-track, you'll be amazed by the range of our European network.

Tell me more

Stress-free connections

Arrive from your transatlantic flight into Dublin Airport, our modern, airy and easy to navigate hub to destinations across Ireland, the UK and mainland Europe.

Tell me more

Roomy transatlantic planes

Step onto your spacious transatlantic plane, get a warm welcome. Settle in with complimentary meals and drinks, as well as your in-flight entertainment screen.

Tell me more

Boost your Avios

Did you know that you can collect Avios flying with Aer Lingus, American Airlines, British Airways and United Airlines? You can then use the Avios to spend on flights, upgrades, hotels, car hire and more. If you're not yet an AerClub member, sign up now for free!

Tell me more

Luxury, with an Irish twist

If you've been dreaming about flying Business Class, you'll love the Aer Lingus experience across the Atlantic. Think fully lie-flat seats, seasonal meals and plenty of other treats.

Tell me more