Five ways Emirates is making travel more flexible than ever

Dear Trade Partner,

Emirates continues to introduce new ways to give travellers greater flexibility, protection and peace of mind when they travel. From free unlimited date changes to industry-first comprehensive travel coverage and enhanced Skywards rewards, here are five key benefits you can share with your customers:

1. Unlimited Free Date Changes for Dubai Travel

From 10 August 2026, customers travelling to Dubai can change their travel dates as many times as they need, free of charge, across every type of fare. Unlimited, free of charge changes run across Saver all the way through to Flex fares in Economy, and for Special, Saver and Flex fares in Business Class. Applicable fare difference may apply.

Economy Flex Plus, Premium Economy, Business Flex Plus, and First Class fares remain fully flexible.

2. Reduced Refund Fees

Emirates has also substantially reduced refund fees on flights to Dubai to US$50 on Saver fares and US$25 on Flex fares in Economy. In Business Class, refund fees will be US$50 on Special and Saver fares and US$25 on Flex fares. No show fees remain as is. Together with unlimited free date changes to Dubai, this latest measure means customers can adjust or step away from a booking with minimal penalties, whatever their circumstances.

3. One Free Date Change Across the Network

Customers travelling anywhere on the Emirates network receive one free date change on tickets booked from 2 April 2026, including journeys connecting through Dubai. Applicable fare differences may apply. Customers can also hold a fare for 24 hours at no charge while they finalise their plans.

4. Comprehensive Travel Cover*

Emirates' Comprehensive Travel Cover is an industry-first insurance product covering a range of scenarios, including added conflict cover with reimbursement of medical expenses up to US$25,000 and a free trip extension of up to 30 days. The cover is not restricted by government travel advice. Customers are also covered for trip cancellation, baggage delay and loss, in addition to unlimited worldwide medical expenses and emergency evacuation.

Available at an accessible premium across 27 countries, the cover can be purchased at the time of booking on emirates.com or added to an existing booking through Manage Booking.

Where flights are disrupted, Emirates will support with accommodation directly for impacted customers. Where onward connections on other airlines are affected, or Emirates services are unavailable, customers are rebooked to their destination at no additional cost, including where cancellations are caused by airspace disruptions.

Availability of Emirates' Comprehensive Travel Cover, coverage terms, benefits and eligibility may vary by country and are subject to applicable local laws and regulatory requirements

5. More Rewards for Emirates Skywards Members

Emirates Skywards members can reach the next tier sooner and earn more along the way. Until 31 August 2026, Tier requirements are reduced by 20%, bringing Silver, Gold, and Platinum status within closer reach. Members also earn 20% bonus Tier Miles on Emirates and flydubai flights, and 20% bonus Skywards miles on Emirates flights booked through emirates.com

The offers are open to Blue members holding a minimum balance of 5,000 Skywards Miles.
