More U.S. connections with LOT and Southwest Airlines

LOT Polish Airlines has entered into a new interline agreement with Southwest Airlines, expanding travel options between the U.S. and LOT's global network. The agreement allows passengers to combine LOT and Southwest-operated flights on a single itinerary, with connections available via Los Angeles (LAX), San Francisco (SFO) and Miami (MIA).

This new partnership gives your clients access to even more destinations across the United States and convenient onward connections via Warsaw (WAW) to Poland, Central and Eastern Europe and beyond.

Discover LOT's newest destinations

In addition to our upcoming new service from Warsaw to Bangkok, we are excited to announce our newest destination: Hanoi, Vietnam (HAN) — a new year-round service from Warsaw launching on March 31, 2027.

Our European network is growing beyond Warsaw as well, with a new year-round route between Gdańsk (GDN) and Paris-Orly (ORY) launching on April 5, 2027, with service four times a week.

For the winter season, LOT is also adding Tromsø (TOS) in Northern Norway, with twice-weekly flights from Warsaw starting December 1, 2026, as well as Turin (TRN), with weekly Saturday service from January 16 through March 27, 2027.
