

Dear Partner,

Your eligible clients can benefit from a complimentary Stopover for the Purpose of Connection (STPC) package when flying with the World's Best Airline, available for passengers with a transit time of 8 to 24 hours and no immediate connection.

For new bookings made on or after 1 September 2026, Discover Qatar will manage the STPC experience, offering eligible customers greater choice, convenience and control throughout their stopover journey.

What's new?

- A simplified eligibility check and booking experience, with an instant eligibility decision through the Qatar Airways Trade portal
- Improved hotel quality and choice, with access to Discover Qatar's curated portfolio of 4-star hotels and above
- Pre-travel hotel selection, add-ons and booking confirmation, allowing customers to arrange their stay before arriving in Doha
- A faster booking process, giving customers greater flexibility and control over their STPC arrangements
- A smoother arrival experience, with no need to queue at Hamad International Airport
- Enhanced visa support from Discover Qatar

From greater hotel choice to a simpler arrival in Doha, the enhanced STPC service will give your clients more control over their stopover and more time to enjoy their journey.

Existing STPC bookings made before 1 September 2026 will continue under the current process.

Kind regards,
Qatar Airways Global Sales
